Detailed Itinerary

Day 1: Da Lat – Langbian Campsite

The first days ride starts right from Dalat and heads out about 6 kilometers before hitting the trail head. We ride on rolling terrain through beautifully pine forested hills. After reaching the summit of the ride, an approximately 25 minute uphill climb, we have a picnic lunch and then continue our journey west towards Langbian. After another 1 to 2 hours of riding we pass through the Lat Minority Village and the campsite for the night.

Dinner will be served at the campsite.

Summary

Biking: 25km – Moderate to Challenging grade
Meals: Lunch, Dinner
Accommodation: Bungalow at Langbian Campsite

Day 2: campsite – Hill Billy – Dalat

After breakfast at the campsite, we make our way south toward the Hill Billy trailhead. The road to the trailhead is a mix of sealed road, single track and wider dirt road. After reaching the trailhead, the trail follows the same description as Hill Billy: 30 km of off road paradise, great single track, some fantastic descents and a few punishing up hills just to make sure you get your workout. A 17 kilometer transfer by mini-bus back to Dalat is arranged at the end of the ride. After this off road odyssey we're sure you'll agree that it's the best mountain bike trip in Vietnam, if not all of Southeast Asia

Summary

Biking: 30km – Moderate to Challenging grade
Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Holiday Extensions

Angkor Wat Classic:

3-day tour of Angkor Wat by bicycle, tuk tuk or car

"The temples of Angkor were spiritual, political, cosmological, and astronomical or geophysical centers. They embodied and encapsulated the world spheres through which the Khmer culture and power structures moved, lived, breathed. In their scope and conception alone, they are among the most spectacular of human achievements." - Eleanor Mannikka

BEACH ESCAPE

Lang Co Beach:

Lang Co sports a beautiful beach with white sand, clear water and shady palm trees. Best time to visit is from April to the end of July. During the winter months it can be too chilly for sun bathing.

Lang Co is on the Hanoi to Ho Chi Minh City line so the train is a convenient way to get there. Only regular trains stop at Lang Co, the nearest stop for express trains is Danang... You can also arrive by road from either Danang 35km to the south or Hue which is about 60km to the north.

Nha Trang Beach:

The south central coast has Vietnam's finest beaches and the best-known beach resort is Nha Trang with its white sandy beach and swaying palm trees.

A boat trip on the clear blue-green waters of Nha Trang Bay with some snorkeling among the coral reefs and a fresh seafood lunch is a great way to spend a day in Nha Trang. For scuba divers there are several diving shops along the beach offering professional dive services.

Away from the beach Nha Trang has some other interesting attractions including Long Son Pagoda, with its enormous seated white Buddha statue, and the 7th century Po Nagar Cham Towers.

Phan Thiet – Mui Ne Beach:

Further south, and just 200km north of Ho Chi Minh City, is the small fishing town of Phan Thiet.

While Phan Thiet is a pleasant enough town, the real attraction is the nearby Mui Ne Peninsula and its 10km of sandy beaches and coconut groves. Many attractive small-scale beach resorts have opened up in recent years amongst the palm trees of Mui Ne and it has become a popular place to rest up for a few days.

Phu Quoc Island:

A mountainous island that is still mostly forested, Phu Quoc is blessed with some beautiful white sandy beaches and clear blue seas.

The island is famous throughout Vietnam for the production of black pepper and its fish sauce, said to be the best in the country. Several small-scale beach resorts have opened over the past few years on Phu Quoc and it is connected by a daily flight to Ho Chi Minh City.
